

Academic discipline:
«Introduction to literary studies»

Cod and name of speciality	6-05-0232-04 Romano-Germanic philology
Training course	1
Semester of training	1
Number of class hours	52
Lectures	26
Seminar classes	-
Practical classes	26
Laboratory classes	-
Form of current assessment (credit/differential credit/exam)	exam
Number of credits	3
Competencies to be formed	To gain knowledge in the field of theoretical poetics. To develop minimal skills in the analysis of a work of art (based on familiarization with the basics of functional poetics). To have an idea of the fundamental facts of historical poetics. To gain general information about the research methodology of literary studies.
Brief content of the academic discipline:
The content of the discipline "Introduction to literary studies" is designed to form a systematic understanding among students about the essence, origin and development of verbal creativity, about a literary work, its structure, the functioning of the work in a social context. It helps to understand the place of literature among other works of art, the impact of a literary work on the formation of consciousness and mentality of the nation. Lectures and practical classes involve the study of the uniqueness of literature as an art form; the study of a literary work as a kind of product of creative activity, its content and form, its structural elements; consideration of the basics of poetry and genera and types of literature; familiarization with the concept of "literary process".	