

Academic discipline:
“History of the Eastern Slavs from ancient times to 1918”

|   |   |
|---|---|
| Code and name of specialty                                   | 6-05-0113-01 Historical education   |
| Training course  | 1/ 2  |
| Semester of training   | 1/ 2/ 3/4   |
| Number of class hours:                                       | 200   |
| Lectures   | 88  |
| Seminar classes  | 112   |
| Practical classes  | -   |
| Laboratory classes   | -   |
| Form of current assessment (credit/differential credit/exam) | Exam/exam/credit/credit   |
| Number of credits  | 3   |
| Competencies to be formed                                    | To know the cause-and-effect relationships and patterns of historical development; common and special in the development of the East Slavic peoples; to be able to identify the factors and mechanisms of historical development, to determine the social significance of historical events; to identify the main periods, trends, patterns of social, economic, political, ethno-national, religious-confessional and cultural events and processes that took place on the territories of Russia and Ukraine |

Summary of the content of the academic discipline:

The formation of the Ancient Russian state. The decline of the Ancient Russian state. Russia and the Golden Horde. The development of Russian lands in the XIV century. The formation of a Russian centralized state. The fall of the Golden Horde yoke. Ivan Grozny’s reforms. The struggle for power within the ruling class. Russia and Ukraine in the XVII century. Russia during the reign of Peter the Great. Palace coups. The reign of Catherine II. The internal and external policy of Russia at the end of the XVIII century. Ukrainian lands in the XVIII century. The reign of Alexander I and Nicholay I. Ukrainian lands in the first half of the XIX century. The reign of Alexander II. Abolition of serfdom. Domestic policy under Alexander III. The policy of the Russian government in the early XX century. The Revolution of 1905-1907. Russia's participation in the World War I. Ukrainian lands as a part of Russia in the early XX century.