

Academic discipline:
«University studies»

|  |   |
|--|---|
| Code and name of specialty  | 6-05-0113-02 Philology Education (Russian Language and Literature)  |
| Training course   | 1   |
| Semester of training  | 1   |
| Number of class hours:  | 18  |
| Lectures  | 18  |
| Seminar classes   | -   |
| Practical classes   | -   |
| Laboratory classes  | -   |
| The form of intermediate certification(credit/differential credit/exam)   | -   |
| Number of credits   | -   |
| Competencies to be formed   | Studying the academic discipline “ University studies ” is to ensure the formation of universal competencies: to master the basics of research, to search, analyse and synthesize information; to be capable of self-development and improvement in professional activity; to take the initiative and adapt to changes in professional activity. |
| Summary of the content of the academic discipline:“ University studies ” is an optional academic discipline that is designed to promote the social and professional adaptation of first-year students. The content includes the following areas: provision and consolidation of an integral system of knowledge on the history of university as a civilizational phenomenon, revealing its role at the present stage of human development, considering the history of the formation and development of university education in Belarus on the example of Mogilev State University named after A. A. Kuleshov, analysing the main trends in the development of modern universities, prospects and problems of classic model transformation of the university. |   |