

The name of the academic discipline:
«Foreign Language»

Speciality code and name	6-05-0115-03 Physical Culture Education
Year of study	1
Academic semester	1
Amount of classroom-based hours	68 / 60
Lectures	-
Seminar classes	-
Practical classes	68 / 60
Laboratory classes	-
Form of current certification (credit/ graded credit /exam)	credit / exam
Amount of credit hours	3
Competences	Be aware of the basics and be able to conduct a scientific research, search for, analyze and synthesize information. Use a foreign language in interpersonal and intercultural interaction. Work as a team member, tolerate social, ethnical, confessional, cultural and other differences. Possess humanistic mindset formation, civic and patriotic consciousness.

Summary of the academic discipline:

The structure of the training course "Foreign language" consists of two consecutive modules. The first is the module of social communication, which allows students to deepen and systematize their grammatical, lexical, communicative skills, and to use the communicative models according to various everyday situations. The second part of the training course - the module of professional communication - reviews professional communication situations specialized vocabulary, as well as the specifics of specialized vocabulary application, provides the necessary skills for abstracting thematic texts.