

Academic discipline:
“The History of Russia and Ukraine”

Code and name of specialty	6-05-0222-01 History
Training course	1/ 2,/3
Semester of training	1/ 2/3/ 4/ 5
Number of class hours:	246
Lecture	126
Seminar classes	120
Practical classes	-
Laboratory classes	-
Form of current assessment (credit/differential credit/exam)	Credit/credit/credit/exam/exam
Number of credits	3/3/3/3/3
Competencies to be formed	To know the cause-and-effect links and patterns of historical development; general and specific in the development of East Slavic peoples; history of East Slavic peoples in the context of European and world history; to be able to identify factors and mechanisms of historical development, determine the social significance of historical events; to identify the main periods, trends, patterns of social, economic, political, ethno-national, religio-confessional and cultural events and processes that took place in Russia and Ukraine
Summary of the content of the academic discipline:
The formation of the Ancient Russian state. Russia's struggle against external aggression. The culture of Ancient Russia. The creation of the Russian state. Ukrainian lands in the XIV – XV centuries. Russia in the XVI century. The Ukrainian lands are part of the Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth. The development of culture in Russia and Ukraine in the XV-XVI centuries. Russia and Ukraine in the XVIII century. Russia under Peter the Great. Palace coups. The reign of Catherine II. The internal and foreign policy of Russia at the end of the XVIII century. Ukrainian lands in the XVIII century. The reign of Alexander I and Nicholay I. Ukrainian lands in the first half of the nineteenth century. Culture in the XVIII– first half of the XIX century. The reign of Alexander II. Abolition of serfdom. The internal policy of the Russian government under Alexander III. The policy of the Russian government in the early twentieth century. The Revolution of 1905-1907 Russia's participation in the First World War. The February Revolution of 1917 Russian and Ukrainian culture in the early twentieth century. The October events and the rise to power of the Bolsheviks. Civil war. The formation of the USSR. The foreign policy of the USSR in the 1920s - 1930s. The political system in the 1920s and 1930s. The entry of the USSR into the World War II. The USSR during the Great Patriotic War. Russia and Ukraine in the first post-war decade. The USSR in the mid-1950s – early 1980s. The period of perestroika. The Russian Federation at the present stage. Ukraine at the present stage.	