

Academic discipline:
«State and law history of foreign countries»

Code and name of specialty	6-05-0421-01 Jurisprudence
Training course	1
Semester of training	1
Number of class hours	96
Lectures	46
Seminar classes	50
Practical classes	-
Laboratory classes	-
The form of intermediate certification (credit/differential credit/exam)	exam
Number of credits	6
Competencies to be formed	Mastering the academic discipline “State and law history of foreign countries” should ensure the universal and specialized competencies formation: to analyze the legal regulation features of public relations in historical retrospect, to identify functioning state patterns and legal institutions in various historical periods, to predict trends in the development of society at the present stage; to identify historical development factors and mechanisms, to determine the social significance of historical events.

Brief content of the academic discipline:

The “ancient East” concept. Common in the ancient Eastern civilizations formation. Periodization of the ancient Egypt history, ancient Babylon, ancient India, ancient China. The form of the ancient Eastern states. Comparative state characteristics and countries social system of the ancient East. The specifics of ancient Eastern law. Ancient civilization and ancient states: ancient Greece and ancient Rome. The state and law of Athens and Sparta. Roman state and law. State and law in the Middle Ages. The state and law of France in the Middle Ages. The state and law of England in the Middle Ages. The state and law of Germany in the Middle Ages. The state and law of Byzantium. The state system of the Arab Caliphate. The state and law of China and Japan in the Middle Ages. State and law in Modern times. The state and law of Great Britain in Modern times. Formation and development of the US state and law in Modern times. The state and law of France in Modern times. The state and law of Germany in Modern times. The state and law of China and Japan in Modern Times. The state and the law of Modern times. The state and law of the USA in the XX - early XXI century. The state and law of Great Britain in Modern times. The state and the rule of France in Modern times. The state and law of Germany XX - early XXI century. The state and law of modern China and Japan.