

Academic discipline:
«General theory of law»

Code and name of specialty	6-05-0421-01 Jurisprudence
Training course	1
Semester of training	1/2
Number of class hours	140
Lectures	76
Seminar classes	64
Practical classes	-
Laboratory classes	-
The form of intermediate certification (credit/differential credit/exam)	credit/exam
Number of credits	6
Competencies to be formed	Mastering the academic discipline “General theory of law” should ensure the basic professional competencies formation: to identify the most general emergence patterns, state-legal phenomena functioning and development, to use the legal categorical apparatus in law enforcement, to make decisions and perform legal actions in strict accordance with the Republic of Belarus legislation.

Brief content of the academic discipline:

“General theory of law” is a complex theoretical academic discipline that includes the following sections: the concept and subject of the general theory of law, the methodology of legal science, the basic origin and essence concepts of the state and law, the law and the state origin, the essence of the state and law, law and power in the system of social regulation, mechanism of legal regulation, person, society and law, state and law forms, functions of state and law and state apparatus, rule of law and civil society, law and state typology, norms of law and legal relations, law system, offenses, legal responsibility, legal culture and legal awareness, law implementation, lawmaking and law interpretation, lawful behavior and legal legality and legal order, law, state and innovative development.