The name of the academic discipline:
«Socio-economic statistics»

Speciality code and name	6-05-0421-03 Economic Law
Year of study	1/2
Academic semester	2/3
Amount of classroom-based hours	10
Lectures	8
Seminar classes	2
Practical classes	-
Laboratory classes	-
The form of intermediate certification (credit/differential credit/exam)	exam
Amount of credit hours	3
Competencies to be formed	Analyze statistical information systems, the national statistical system of the Republic of Belarus and the organization of the international statistics system

Summary of the academic discipline:

Socio-economic statistics introduces students to the main sources of information about economic and social processes, methods of collecting it, ensuring its reliability and comparability, methods of identifying and correcting possible inaccuracies and errors, modern methods of computer processing and analysis of information, methods of processing initial data and ways of presenting the results of calculations and analysis. Sections of the discipline introduce students to the general principles of constructing, calculating and analyzing the most important indicators of various types of activities, the availability of various resources, the results of their use and assessments of labor efficiency.