

Academic discipline:
«Criminal law (general part) »

Code and name of specialty	6-05-0421-03 Economic law
Training course	1/2
Semester of training	2/3
Number of class hours	18
Lectures	14
Seminar classes	4
Practical classes	-
Laboratory classes	-
The form of intermediate certification (credit/differential credit/exam)	credit
Number of credits	3
Competencies to be formed	Mastering the discipline «Criminal law (general part)» should ensure the formation of basic professional competencies: correctly and reasonably apply the criminal law in law enforcement, analyze the crime composition and its signs, give a criminal legal assessment of a socially dangerous act, determine the punishment of the guilty, establish the grounds and conditions for the release of a person from criminal liability in strict accordance with the current criminal legislation of the Republic of Belarus.

Brief content of the academic discipline:

«Criminal law (general part) » is one of the leading Republic of Belarus law branches, the state's criminal policy legal basis in the field of combating crime by criminal liability means. Criminal law is a backbone branch of legislation around which other law branches are formed that ensure the fight against crime: criminal procedure and penal law. Criminal law, as a legal branch and as a knowledge field, has a rich history, and is distinguished by a variety of scientific doctrines and is the embodiment of the modern legal culture achievements. Criminal law knowledge ensures the fundamental principles assimilation of legal responsibility as such and contributes to the formation of a professional legal lawyer awareness.