

Academic discipline:
« Information technologies in special and inclusive education »

Code and name of specialty	7-07-0114-01 Special and inclusive education
Training course	1
Semester of training	2
Number of class hours	40
Lectures	14
Seminar classes	-
Practical classes	16
Laboratory classes	10
Form of current assessment (credit/differential credit/exam)	credit
Number of credits	2
Competencies to be formed	Develop professional research and innovation tasks based on the application of information and communication technologies

Brief content of the academic discipline:

The elective academic discipline “Information technologies in special and inclusive education” is an integral part of the system of special disciplines, the study of which prepares students to work with modern information technologies in the system of correctional pedagogical work with children with psychophysical disabilities. The purpose of the academic discipline is to develop in students’ knowledge about special hardware and special software, skills and abilities to use information technologies in the process of teaching and raising children with special needs of psychophysical development.